INTRODUCTION TO ASPIRING MEMBERS

The Club was started during 1967 as a group of pilots on an area in Watloo Silverton where the City of Tshwane testing grounds are today.

The leader of the group was Johan Coetzer, whom later became the first chairman of the Club at its official formation in 1973.

The Club's flying facility has moved four times over the years with the last move further away from the Pretoria suburbs to where it is now on a farm at Renosterfontein East of Tshwane, known as Rhinopark, now Legends MX.

Today, the Club is situated on a 4,4 hectare ground at Rhino Park with the following facilities:

1. Two tar run ways (200 m x 10 m and 90 m x 6 m)
2. A huge flying area
3. Concrete pits area covered with shade net
4. Visitors area with a pavilion
5. Toilet facilities
6. Braai area
7. Safe and secure parking
8. Running water
9. Frequency control board
10. Club house with under cover area
11. Kitchen and storeroom

The membership fluctuates around 100 members.

The Club activities are managed by the Club committee and are governed by the goals as stipulated in the Club's constitution and rules. The rules of the Club are drawn up with the safety of the people and property at heart, to ensure and protect the continued existence of the Club and promote fairness amongst members.

Training for new comers to the sport is provided free of charge by a few instructors on a voluntary basis.

Club event days are organized regularly and a year-end function is held every year.

Becoming a member of the Club requires of the member to acquire and practice some new responsibilities. Before membership is granted to an applicant, the following requirements need to be adhered to:

1. His radio equipment has to be inspected and approved by the Club appointed representative.
2. He must complete the necessary application forms and pay all fees.
3. He must study all documents submitted to him at the time when he joined and ensure that he is well aware of the expected conduct at the airfield.

We at SMFC hope that this information will be of value. If you have any questions please contact the chairman or any club member.
